

In-Person Attendance Requirements for Participation at GAC-MAC London 2021

The University is committed to providing members of the University community, including students, employees and visitors, with a safe and healthy work and learning environment consistent with its legislative obligations. Throughout the pandemic, the University has sought to do so by implementing health and safety protocols and policies based on the advice and recommendations from the provincial government, the Chief Medical Officer of Health and the Middlesex-London Health Unit. Additional information can be found by visiting Western COVID-19 Vaccination Policy and Visitors to Campus procedures.
